

Prep School Track Meet Will Be Dual Affair

FIFTH PREP SCHOOL MEET ON SATURDAY

Dual Affair in Central Y. M. C. A. Saturday Night McGuire's and Benedictine Will Not Have Teams Entered.

The fifth annual prep school track meet will be held Saturday afternoon at the Central Y. M. C. A. The meet will start promptly at 2 o'clock. This affair has become a very important one to the followers of amateur athletics and the crowds attending grow larger with each succeeding year. McGuire's and Benedictine will not have teams entered. McGuire's management over the telephone was informed that they were not going to enter the meet. The reason given by the Red and Black manager was that the fellows were not taking any interest in track and he had thought it advisable not to enter a team. However, they intend entering the meet on the night of February 15. Both Benedictine and McGuire's will enter teams in the meet to be held in the Blues' Armory on the night of February 15.

The Richmond Academy entertains high hopes of capturing the meet. The Marshallites will have their work cut out for them if they intend to win their sixth straight meet. Heretofore, the public school has had everything their own way, having come out on top in every indoor meet held under the auspices of the league, but the wearers of the orange and blue promise to give them a surprise. The meet will be open to all visitors and all recorded a hearty welcome to the officials. A special reception was expected to attend despite the fact that the meet has developed into a dual affair. Mayor Ansley has consented to act as referee for the youngsters and promises that he will make the future citizens "see the mark."

IN THE WAKE OF THE GAME

By Gus Malbert

AYERS REPORTS EARLY. DOCTOR YANCEY WYATT AYERS will dawdle no longer than March 1 over his materia medica, his obstetrics, his pathology or his physiology. Come will be textbooks and a room of the laboratory, for the doctor expects to answer just as soon as Clark Griffith calls, and the sooner the better, hits the doc. Last year it cost Doctor Ayers a cool hundred to fly in the face of Mr. Griffith, and cool hundreds grow not so plentifully in the back yards of medical schools. Therefore the absolute divorce of the doctor from his books. Likewise taboo flying in managerial faces.

SPEAKING TO US yestreen, the goody doctor gave forth the information that he would be among the first to report when the saplings were gathered for inspection by the boss of the Washington outfit. "I know that I have got to lose a year from college whenever I start," quoth the doctor, "and it may as well be now as later. If there is anything in me I want to give it the benefit of all the schooling it can get, and I want to be on hand when the first principles are being taught."

CONTINUING, he gave birth to this philosophy: "I have every confidence in Mr. Griffith. He knows that I am green, and I know it. If I were a finished product I would be drawing down some of those fat pay envelopes I read about, instead of just trying to break into fast company. But I can work, and I have never yet been tired. Therefore I am willing to take position with the rest of the recruits, and ready to stand on the showing I make. I am very certain that there are better pitchers in the big leagues than I am, but I am just as certain that none will work harder, stick to it longer, or listen more eagerly to what is told than I will."

"IT'S GOING TO BE a long pull and a hard pull, I know, but if there's a chance I want to find it out. However, I will be keenly disappointed if I do not make good. I do not drink, smoke or dissipate, and I have my health; that ought to help some."

THIS MUCH FOR AYERS. He shows the proper amount of enthusiasm, has never looked back since you have known him, is willing to wipe his mind clear of everything save learning how to pitch baseball successfully, hasn't an exaggerated idea of his ability, though realizing that he must be worth something or else he would not have been bought, has been working every day this winter in a gymnasium keeping himself in condition, and has, above everything, that abiding faith in himself which belongs alone to youth. The Hillsville young man therefore combines very nearly every element necessary for success—in January.

GREAT MANAGER MACK. WE LEARN that Connie Mack once fired Joe Jackson because of his lack of brains. Joe Jackson, we read, has turned down an offer of $65,000 for three seasons' work as a member of the Federal League. The which combination causes us quickly to add two and two and make Connie Mack a wonderful judge of material, or the press agent of the Feds a gigantic juggler of figures.

HELP OUT COLTS. WE READ FURTHER that the Feds have a great liking for John McGraw, head pilot of the Giants, and that they are showing this liking by depleting the ranks of the other clubs so that John may win his fourth consecutive pennant. One of those sort of yarns labeled wonderful-if-true. But here's an invitation to the new organization: Come to Virginia, like Ray Ryan, and help us to a pennant by taking every pesky player Heinie Busch can fool into spending a season in Petersburg.

COMES NOW some wag with the pointed remark that quite a few ball players will have to be Fed soon.

BALTIMORE, with big league hopes, is grabbing the Federal League in a monstrous warm embrace. Baltimore has always more or less resented the removal of the Orioles of olden days from that city. Therefore any opposition to the International was welcome.

COMMENTING on the report that Clyde Milan had been tripped into signing with the Gilmore avalanche, Clark Griffith says that he doesn't care if it's so. "Milan couldn't be so ungrateful," growls the old fox. The which, meaning the ingratitude, may be explained by reference to the Weegman-Hanon-Gilmore-Stiefel community purse.

NEWS NOTE: Charlie Strain was a visitor to local baseball headquarters yesterday. We failed to learn whether it is open season for advance money or not.

TRIO OF FREDs. UNLIKE JOE JACKSON, Fred Falkenberg, Fred Blanding and Fred Kahler have vaulted into the camp of the invaders, making quite a hole in the hurling strength of the Naps, though Nicholas Cullop, of Bristol, Va., will report. Charley Somers, president of the Cleveland club, may well be glad that Jackson's front name is not Fred. (Allowable rhyme—Freds to Feds.)

VIRGINIA VS. GEORGETOWN. THEY ARE STILL talking about Virginia's having dropped Georgetown in Washington. Somehow or other Washington seems unable to understand that it is entirely within the province of the athletic authorities at Virginia to decide with what colleges the Charlottesville school is to compete. Regardless of what the cause or causes which led to the severance of athletic relations, regardless of the merit of Virginia's position in this matter as she wills. The whole question has been given a thorough airing, and some rather unclear lines have been spread before the public by all schools concerned. Better let it all rest where it is. Time may heal the breach; certain it is that continual discussion of the matter can achieve nothing, for of all people in the world, the college man, whether student or alumnus, is the most partisan, and fortunately so. To Georgetown alumnus, Georgetown is right; to Virginia alumnus, Virginia did the only thing left, and there you are. So let's amen!

LOCAL ATHLETIC BOOM. NEVER IN THE history of Richmond have athletics occupied so much time and attention, and it is good. With invitation meets to the youngsters, and dual meets between the grown-ups, with the militia, the civilian, the schools, colleges and clubs taking interest, in a year or two a bumper crop of athletes should be harvested. The only people we hear kicking or offering a word of protest are those interested in resorts where the young man had best not be. Basketball, track athletics, soccer, swimming and baseball are the activities drawing the attention of the boys and men, and the encouragement of the grown-ups is pleasing.

Y. W. C. A. ACTIVE. AT THE Young Woman's Christian Association gymnasium the classes are increasing at a surprising rate, and a branch has been established in South Richmond. The girls are getting training long denied them. They are not only getting this physical development, but in the games a friendly rivalry is being engendered that is attracting other girls. Where the classes were small in the beginning they are growing each day. It's a bully good thing for Richmond.

BECAUSE SEVERAL members of the Amateur Baseball Commission, which was scheduled to meet in the National State and City Bank to-morrow night, are members of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, President Hill, of the commission, has postponed the meeting until Thursday night, February 5. This announcement is made at his request.

WANT TO ARRANGE INTERSTATE MEET. Manager Williams, of John Marshall High School, has left for Raleigh, N. C., where he will try to arrange for a game with King High School. If he is successful it will be the first time in the history of either institution that any athletic relations have been carried on between the representative teams of the two States.

IN addition to arranging a baseball game with King High School, he endeavored to arrange for a track meet between the two schools, this affair to take place the same date as the baseball game. This affair should prove a great drawing card in the Carolina capital and be financially beneficial to both schools. A big athletic carnival of this kind, as it were, should draw an immense crowd in Raleigh. It would be a great saving in expenses for the locals, for practically every member of the baseball team is also on the track squad. And then, with the added attraction of a track meet, Carolinians would be able to offer the locals a much more satisfactory guarantee.

Carolina A. & M. to Play Hilltoppers. Washington, January 27.—Arrangements practically have been completed whereby the North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical College will take Virginia's place on the Georgetown football schedule. The Raleigh eleven probably will play here on November 14.

FOOTBALL PROSPECTS OF SPIDERS ARE GOOD

Plenty of Veteran Material for Coach Dobson to Pick From—Season Opens October 3, With V. M. I. in Lexington.

The Richmond College football team will have one of the heaviest schedules in the country. Coach Dobson has arranged for games with the Virginia Military Institute, University of North Carolina, and University of Virginia. This season will be the first one in years that the Spiders have been able to schedule such strong teams.

Frank Dobson will again have the team under his direction, and this fact alone augurs well for successful year on the gridiron. If anything, the Spiders should have a better season this fall than they had last year. Dobson will have more veteran material to work with. Captain Anselmore, King, Kievasahl, C. Wicker, Pollard, Privot, Jones, Robins, J. Wicker, Burns, Cobern, Deale and Newton are expected to return to the college in the fall, and with this likely-looking bunch to build a foundation of, Dobson should be able to turn out another championship eleven this fall.

The Spiders open their season with the University of North Carolina at the University of Virginia. Their next big game after that will be with Virginia Military Institute, in Lexington, on October 3. Then comes what is practically the biggest game on the spider schedule. On October 10 they journey to Charlottesville for a crack at the University of Virginia. This season will be the first one in years that the Spiders have been able to schedule such strong teams.

Members of the Eastern Association have been giving the local football enthusiasts about the snappiest, thrilling and hardest-fought brand of football that could be desired.

FRATERNITY HAS WITHDRAWN EDICT

Makes Peace With National Association After All Demands Are Met.

New York, January 27.—The Baseball Players' Fraternity today withdrew its edict against the provision of minor league contracts, a satisfactory agreement having been reached with the leading minor league players on a national association. President Fultz stated:

"The Baseball Players' Fraternity has been in communication with Mr. Barrow, president of the International League, also acting as the American Association, and Judge Kavanaugh, president of the Southern Association, also empowered to act for the Western League.

We have been assured that all can be agreed by players in these leagues will be subjected to the provision already made by the national commission in the major league contracts so far as the clause suspending the player is concerned, also that pending the future will have the clause stricken out, irrespective of what action the national association takes."

FEATHERWEIGHTS READY TO GRAPPLE

Herbert and Cutlanos on Edge for Match in Academy To-morrow Night.

The featherweight wrestling title will be decided to-morrow night in the Academy of Music, when George Herbert will defend his right to hold his belt against the new contender, Ed Cutlanos. The City Auditorium some weeks ago—George Cutlanos. Both lads are ready for the battle of the gymnasium. Herbert, a former champion, is a former champion, and both will attempt to live up to the confidence their friends have placed in them.

Herbert, always a prime favorite in Richmond because of his ability as well as his sportsmanlike spirit, should be the favorite for sentimental reasons, and this is not undervaluing the strength of Cutlanos. The Greek is wily, a postmaster of the game and has met some of the best men in the business, conquering all comers. His experience extends over a period of thirteen years, and therein he has the edge on Herbert.

The local grappler, however, knows a thing or two, and will be no easy victim. Herbert has not spent all of his time in the bushes, and has himself engaged some good men. Considerable interest has been shown in the match, and Promoter Morano probably a record-breaking crowd.

Besides the big match, there will be two preliminaries. Young Victor and Kid Johnson will open the entertainment with a finish bout, and Young Irish will try to prove to Zeke Smith that he is the rightful middleweight champion of Virginia.

St. Peter's Wins. St. Peter's third team entered the Madison School third team in a fast and snappy game of basketball by the score of 13 to 6. The feature of the game for St. Peter's was the shooting of L. Massie and he guarding of C. Caravati. The line-up: Madison—E. Carroll, left forward; Baker, right forward; Brown, center; A. Carroll, right guard; Atnech, left guard; E. Carrol, left guard; J. Carroll, C. Meoni, right forward; W. Wright, center; L. Del-papa, right guard; C. Caravati, left guard.

THREE NAPLANDERS FLOP TO FEDERALS

Falkenberg, Blanding and Kahler Leave American League for Camp of Invaders.

Chicago, Ill., January 27.—The desertion of three Cleveland pitchers to the Federal League was admitted here this afternoon by President C. W. Somers, of the Cleveland club. The three are Fred Falkenberg, who is said to have signed with Indianapolis; Fred Blanding, who will join the Toronto club; and Fred Kahler, signed with Pittsburgh.

Federal League officials, following their recent decision, declined to comment on the report of the jump of the Cleveland pitchers. But rumors generally considered the new organization's acquisition a triumph, since the three pitchers, particularly Falkenberg were among the most effective of the Naps' staff last year. Salary increases and three-year contracts are said to have been given the three.

President Murphy of the Chicago Nationals, said today that the Cleveland pitcher, president of the Federals, was organizing a new league, to include Chicago, Milwaukee, Detroit, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Indianapolis and Kansas City.

The Chicago and Baltimore Federal teams are complete and ready to begin spring training. It was announced at the league's meeting that the Chicago team, which consists of twenty men will leave February 2 for Hot Springs, Tex. The Baltimore team has arranged eight amateur games with Southern college teams on its training trip.

Orlando Feds at Southern Pines. Baltimore, January 27.—Southern Pines, N. C., has been selected as the spring training grounds for the Orlando Federal team. Knabe expects to make a short visit there soon for the purpose of completing arrangements.

YELLOW JACKETS DEFEAT C. C. A.

Local Quint Loses in Hardest Kind of Battle on Ashland Floor.

In an interesting and hard-fought game of basketball at Ashland last night, the C. C. A. five lost to the Randolph-Macon quint by the score of 42 to 26. The game was well played throughout, both teams playing flashy ball at times. The C. C. A. team started off like winners, scoring three goals before their opponents could get a goal. The Randolph-Macon team played a good passing game, but the work of Billie stood out above the rest of the team. Bell, for the C. C. A. boys, played a star game, causing several long shots, while Patterson also played a good game.

The line-up follows:
Randolph—Position. C. C. A.
Mason, forward. Woodard
Milken, forward. Bell
Walker, center. Tucker
Walker, guard. Patterson
Richardson, guard. Hay
Summary: Field goals—Milkon, 7; Shetty, 4; Walker, 1; Compton, 2; Richardson, 1; Coe, 1; Bell, 6; Woodard, 2; Hay, 1; Patterson, 1. Free goals—Milkon, 1; Patterson, 1. Total goals—Milkon, 1; Patterson, 1. Driver for Walker. Coe for Richardson. Referee—Moyette (Randolph-Macon). Score—Milkon, 42; C. C. A., 26. Timekeeper—Vaughan (Randolph-Macon). Attell to Meet Kilbane

Chicago, Ill., January 27.—Abe Attell, former featherweight champion, to-day received a message from San Francisco saying he had been matched with Johnny Kilbane, present champion, for a bout for the title. The date probably will be March 20. Attell lost the title to Kilbane in 1912.

FITZSIMMONS IS BARRED BY COURT

New York, January 27.—The Supreme Court to-day denied the application of Robert Fitzsimmons, one-time heavyweight champion of the world, for an injunction restraining the New York Athletic Commission from refusing to sanction his participation in boxing exhibition in this State.

The commission held that Fitzsimmons, who is fifty-one years of age, is too old to again enter the ring. Justice Seabury ruled that the commission was within its right in making such an order.

Counsel for Fitzsimmons said the case would be fought on. The present injunction, he explained, merely sought an injunction pending further litigation.
